General Information:

Home Games/Training: Sunday at 10:30am prompt and usually finishing at 12:30pm. Additional training times may apply for individual squads

Away Games: Players meet at the club house for 09:15am, (see fixture list). Coaches will be available on an 'as required' basis and will leave at 09:30am. Payment of the subscription fee will entitle the player to travel free of charge on the bus when provided.

Please provide: Studded boots, (no sharp edges), gum shield, white shorts, red socks, warm training top, towel, change of clothing and drink. A limited number of shirts are available for match days, however, club tops can be bought from the club shop.

CODES OF CONDUCT – All club members must abide by the following guidelines:

Coaches Responsibilities

Develop in all Players a love of interest in Rugby
 Develop each player's maximum potential
 Encourage and deliberately boost the confidence of all players.
 Do not ridicule or over criticise
 Ensure each coaching session is well prepared with the coaching emphasis being placed on the development and acquisition of skill decision making and understanding of the game.
 Maintain the highest standards of personal discipline and courtesy during matches irrespective of the result and be a perfect role model for the young people.
 Respect the opposition, without whom the match would not be possible
 Respect the referee and accept all decisions without dissension

Parent Responsibilities

Set an example to your child.
 Applaud good play by your team and by members of the opposing team
 Be friendly to parents of the opposition.
 Respect the referee and do not question publicly his/her decision.
 Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse.
 Recognise and value the importance of coaches
 Do not force an unwilling child to participate in rugby, their enjoyment is paramount.
 Encourage your child to play by the Laws/Rules.
 Teach your child the importance of effort and teamwork.
 Help your child improve skills and to learn a positive attitude to the game.

Player Responsibilities

Play rugby within the Laws and the sporting spirit of the game.
 Support and co-operate with fellow team members to ensure the team plays to its maximum capability.
Respect the opposition, without whom the match would not be possible.
Respect the referee and accept all decisions without dissension

Security: Changing rooms and showers are usually provided, however, due to the large volume of through traffic in these areas it is not recommended to leave valuables unattended as these rooms are not locked during match/training days. The club accepts no responsibility should items be lost or stolen.

Insurance: Due to W.R.U. directives we must operate a no-pay, no play rule. Coaches cannot play unregistered players. Only "paid-up" members, registered with the W.R.U. are insured to play
