CODES OF CONDUCT – All club members must abide by the following guidelines:

Coaches Responsibilities

- To develop in all players an appreciation of rugby
- To develop each player's maximum potential
- To encourage and deliberately boost the confidence of all players
- DO NOT ridicule or over criticise
- Ensure each coaching session is well prepared with the coaching emphasis being placed on the development and acquisition of skill decision making and understanding of the game.
- Maintain the highest standards of personal discipline and courtesy during matches irrespective of the result and be a perfect role model for all players
- Respect the opposition, without whom the match would not be possible
- Respect the referee and accept all decisions without dissension

Parent Responsibilities

- Set an example to your child.
- Applaud good play by your team and by members of the opposing Team
- Be friendly to parents of the opposition.
- Respect the referee and do not question publicly his/her decision.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from rugby
- Recognise and value the importance of coaches
- Do not force an unwilling child to participate in rugby, their enjoyment is paramount.
- Encourage your child to learn and play by the Laws/Rules of the game.
- Teach your child the importance of effort and teamwork.
- Help your child improve skills and to learn a positive attitude to the game.

Player Responsibilities

- Be properly dressed for the game and training.
- Control your temper on the field of play, DO NOT over react, and DO NOT take unfair advantage of any player during matches or training
- Ignore comments from spectators and concentrate on own and teams performance.
- Co-operate with team mates, coaches and referee, without whom there is no game.
- Accept discipline without question, whether during a match or training
- Play rugby within the Laws and the Sporting Spirit of the game. (learn the Laws of the game and abide by them)
- Support and co-operate with fellow team members to ensure the team plays to its maximum capability.
- Never use foul or abusive language
- Respect the opposition, without whom the match would not be possible.
- Respect the referee and accept all decisions without dissension

The Welsh Rugby Union emphasises the duty of all players and Member Clubs to ensure that the game is conducted at every level in accordance with discipline and sporting behaviour
Security: Changing rooms and showers are usually provided, however, due to the large volume of through traffic in these areas it is not recommended to leave valuables unattended as these rooms are not locked during match/training days. The club accepts no responsibility should items be lost or stolen.

Insurance: Due to W.R.U. directives we must operate a no-pay, no play rule. Coaches cannot play unregistered players. Only fully "paid-up" club members, registered with the W.R.U. are insured to play. Payment by cheque only to Wrexham Rugby Union Club Ltd.
Subscriptions must be paid by 31st August for existing club members.

New members must pay subscriptions before they are eligible to play. (minimum of 1 week before 1st Match)
